

OUR PASTOR

Father Paul Siewers, Ph.D. is a former award winning writer for the Chicago Sun-Times and long-time award winning professor at Bucknell University, where he specializes in Christian Literature. He is a graduate of the St. John of Kronstadt Pastoral School and trained at Holy Trinity Monastery in Jordanville, NY. He and his wife, Matushka Olga and their two sons have lived in Lewisburg for more than two decades.

OUR PATRON

St. John of Shanghai and San Francisco, for whom our Church is named, was a 20th century Saint of the Russian Church. An exile from communism, he brought many orphans to safety in America from China. He worked to re-establish the ancient Orthodox faith in the West, where it had roots in Celtic, English, German and other cultures.

Welcome Home! to St. John's Orthodox Church

A Russian Orthodox Mission in the Lewisburg-Winfield area, serving the Bucknell University and Susquehanna Confluence communities.

We offer a safe, child-centered welcoming environment, to all ages for experiencing the ancient and living traditions of the original Christian Church of our Lord Jesus Christ, fulfilling the Old Testament Israel.
